OLC DAILY SUMMARY

1. We recontacted Speaker O'Neill's office concerning the Speaker's response to the Director's letter on compartmented clearances, explaining that the Director's policy limiting clearances to the Minority and Majority Leaders is firm. The Speaker will get back to us after the recess if he still feels clearances should be issued to the staff of the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee.
  2. House International Relations Committee, International Organizations (Fraser) Subcommittee staffers will interview [redacted] on 29 August in connection with the Subcommittee's investigation of Korean-American relations. [redacted] [redacted].
  3. Although not expected to recess until COB Wednesday, 30 August, the Senate recessed at 6 p.m. Friday, 25 August and will not reconvene until 10 a.m. Wednesday, 6 September. The House is also recessed and will reconvene at noon on 6 September. When the House reconvenes it is expected to take up H.R. 7308, the electronic surveillance bill. On Wednesday, 6 September H.R. 7308 has been granted an open rule - 3 hours of general debate. Complete consideration of the electronic surveillance bill is scheduled for Thursday, 7 September after consideration by the House of the Presidential veto of H.R. 10929, the DOD Authorization, FY 79.
  4. Sam Hoskinson, of the NSC staff, has been asked to determine if the weekly calendar OLC sends to him on proposed Hill briefings satisfies the requirements of the Brzezinski memorandum of 16 August on Hill testimony related to foreign policy matters. We also questioned the wisdom of including the DCI in a directive involving pre-clearance on Hill statements, since this could be hopped upon as politicizing intelligence. Hoskinson will be back in touch.

Presumption correct. Each week [redacted] sends NSC (Hoskinson) a calendar of upcoming events. I have called Hoskinson today to:

- 1) determine if that meets attached requirement;
- 2) inform him that I believe it would be disastrous to require NSC clearance of DCI testimony on intelligence facts. [Sam is looking into this and will call back his assessment. He said one NSC concern has been published public documents, including those put out by CIA.]
